Sir,

In returning your No. G.678 dated 3/4th February 1907 and its enclosures, I have the honour to observe as follows:-

(1) Purchase of Congo Medicine Chests is a new charge and no reason has been ascertained as required by rule 32 par. I chapter II of the Financial rules for incurring the expenditure immediately.

(2) The expenditure under House rent to Senior Surgeon &c. up to 31st January 1907 according to the books of this office is Rs. 945 and it is said that the House rent was discontinued for the Senior Surgeon Such being the case the entry of Rs. 1260/- as probable expenditure during the remainder of the year is not understood.

(3) The grant made for house rent allowances of Gazetted officer comes under the head "Salaries" and as such cannot be utilised for contingent charges.

2. I therefore request that you will be so good as to return the appropriation statement with the needful done
